

ORGANIZATION OF INSTRUCTION

Students will be primarily responsible to classroom teachers. The instructional and non-instructional services which are provided by special personnel in each school will be brought into the educational program in a manner determined by the Pupil Evaluation Team (PET) process.

All classroom teachers, all special instructional personnel and all special non-instructional personnel in each school will be primarily responsible to the Principal of that school. Special personnel who work in more than one school will be responsible to the Principal of the school in which they are working at the particular time.

Principals will be primarily responsible to the Superintendent for instructional and non-instructional services and will have authority for all activities in a given school.

Other supervisory staff is responsible to the Superintendent for special programs within the school system.

Adopted: July 25, 2000

Revised: _____