

TITLE I—PARENT INVOLVEMENT

For the purpose of strengthening the Title I program, Title I administrators and staff must comply with the following provisions:

- A. Parents will be notified promptly that their child has been selected for Title I services and the reasons for the decision;
- B. Specific instructional objectives for their child will be discussed with the parent;
- C. Parents will receive regular reports on their child's progress;
- D. Parents will receive training, materials, and suggestions to help them promote the education of their children at home;
- E. Parents' suggestions in the planning, development, and operation of the program will be solicited;
- F. Parents' recommendations will be responded to in a timely manner;
- G. Volunteer or paid participation by parents in school activities will be encouraged; and
- H. Parent coordinators will be designated and parent advisory councils will be established.

The end of the year report to the School Board and to State Title I officials shall include to what extent these provisions were accomplished.
